

DO WOMEN MAKE THE BEST DETECTIVES?

THROUGHOUT U.S. LAW ENFORCEMENT, WOMEN ARE MAKING THEIR MARK

WHICH CAME FIRST, THE FEMALE FICTIONAL COP OR THE REAL ONE?

In 1921, the world's top female investigator was Maud West. She proved that sleuths in skirts have more tact, quicker perception and better intuition.

Psychology Today

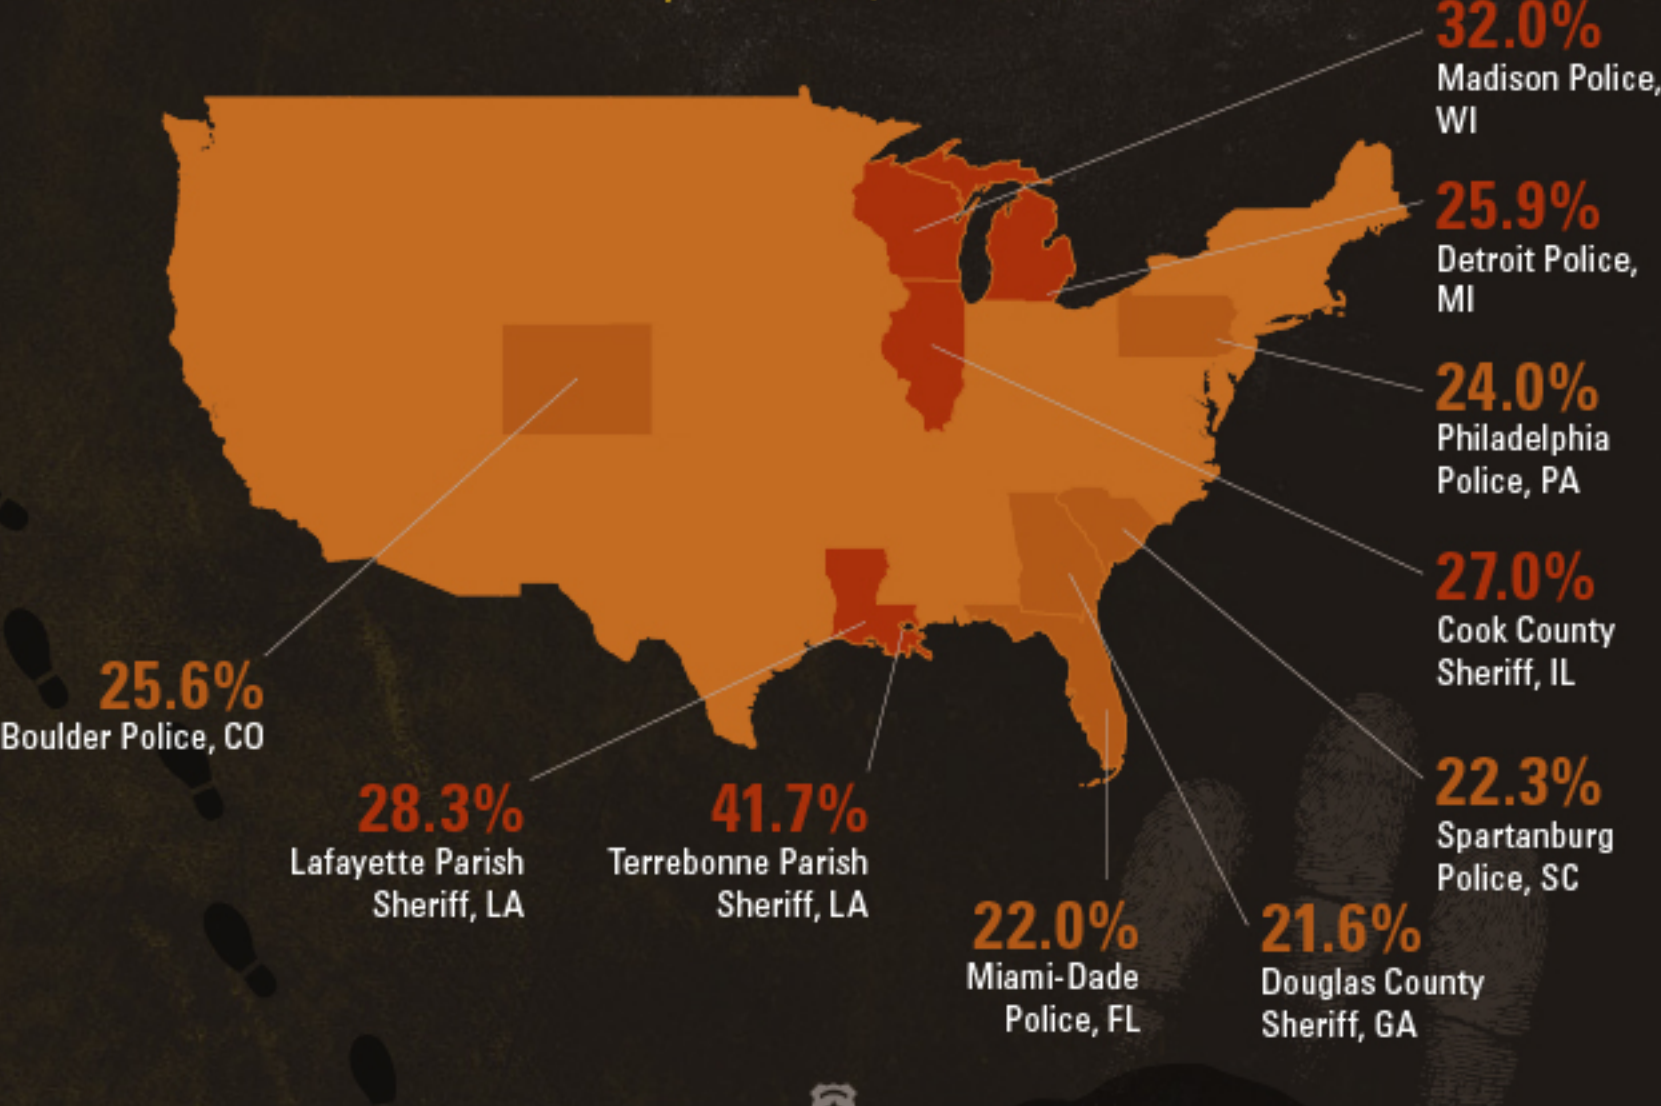

added credence to the theory in a 2011 story that argued a female's stronger, nonverbal communication skills make her more intuitive.

DAILY NEWS

presented expert testimony in 2012 that gals' abilities to problem solve, multitask and listen make them better bosses than their male counterparts.

MEET JESSICA DANIEL

BOOK 1

BOOK 2

A hard-edged investigator with a soft side and the latest addition to a series of iconic women detectives in books, TV and film. Jessica is gaining popularity throughout Europe with a series of SIX No. 1 bestselling detective novels by author Kerry Wilkinson.

"I don't know why criminals can't just stick to office hours."
-Jessica Daniel

7 QUALITIES OF THE BEST FEMALE CRIME SOLVERS

1 ANALYSIS:

Agatha Christie's Miss Marple and Edward Stratemeyer's iconic teen crime solver Nancy Drew were about the devilish details.

2 INTUITION:

Like most women, Jessica Fletcher and Dr. Joan Watson know when you're lying.

FACT!

Women have 10X more white brain matter than men. White brain matter is the stuff of intuition.

Elementary's Lucy Liu is not the first female to play Sherlock Holmes' stalwart companion. Margaret Colin portrayed Dr. Jane Watson in the 1987 TV movie The Return of Sherlock Holmes.

3 TOUGH:

Don't let the names fool you, Pepper Anderson and Honey West can kick your...

"I've got some guy who seems to know an awful lot about my case but doesn't seem willing to speak about it. Meanwhile, he's writing stories blasting me and my fellow officers. Maybe I should bring you in for questioning?"
-Jessica Daniel

On an episode of Mythbusters in 2010, an experiment showed that women outperformed their male counterparts when it came to keeping their hand in an ice cold bowl of water. This is also confirmed by a report in Time Magazine, which explained how estrogen dulls pain receptors.

4 TENACITY:

Brenda Leigh Johnson is called The Closer for a reason.

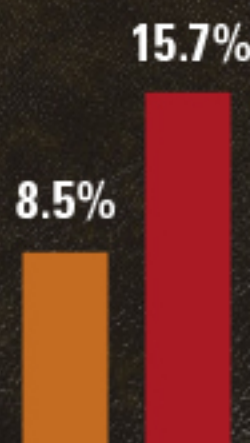

FACT!

Women are more flexible than men, and are harder to submit in arm bars and leg locks. Men do have harder bones than women. But a woman's flexibility at times enables her to kick higher and faster.

FACT!

Female interest in boxing has increased substantially in all age demographics from 2002 to 2012, doubling from 8.5% to 15.7% in the 55+ group.

5 LEADERSHIP:

It's not easy being at the top, unless you're Captain Monica Rawling.

6 PRAGMATISM:

Jane Rizzoli spends her days hunting monsters and helping victims. Plain and simple.

7 SHARP:

Detective work is more fun when taking the piss, which is probably why Nora Charles was so good at it.

"Find the link, we find the killer."
-Jessica Daniel
